COMPLETION OF EASTERN DIXIE ALL ARRANGED

Commissioners Plan to Build Unfinished Stretches.

LET AFTER JULY 1

Work Will Entail Spending Nearly
$2,500,000—Complete Road
From Cincinnati to Cumberland Gap.

Arrangements for completion of the Eastern Dixie Highway, either by accepting bids or authorizing advertisement for contracts, were made by the state highway association in session at Frankfort this week, according to Major E. S. Helburn, member of the board, who has just returned home from Frankfort. No bids will be let until July 1, but the stretches of road to be let then or soon after will complete the through, hard surface highway between Cincinnati and Cumberland Gap. It will entail the expenditure of about two and a half millions of dollars.

The commission agreed to let the contract for 16 miles in Laurel, between London and Corbin, to J. W. Chilton for $146,000, the bid to be let July 1. They accepted the bid on seven miles of road in Rockcastle County, from Mt. Vernon city limits to Roundstone, and will let it to J. D. Betts July 1 for $65,000. Reconstruction of the bridge across the Cumberland River at Fourmile they agreed to let to the lowest bidder, for $14,200. Contracts for surface treatment of the road from Pineville to Knox County line and from Middlesboro city limits to the top of the mountain will be let July 1, the commission decided, and they ordered advertised the road from Corbin to Barbourville, to be let as soon as possible after July 1. The road from Williamsburg to Jellico, on the Eastern Dixie, was also ordered advertised. The Laurel County stretch of five and a half miles, between London and Mt. Vernon, will be let soon, as will the grading and drainage contract for the nine and a half miles between Berea and Roundstone. Three miles of road in Harlan County, between Harlan and Loyal, will be let soon, the commission ordered, along with the construction of two bridges in Harlan County.

JAPS PLAN BONDS FOR RECONSTRUCTION

Proposed Issue Will Be About 155,000,000 Yens if the Market is Favorable.

Associated Press.
TOKIO, May 24.—New domestic bond issues totalling 155,000,000 yen will be floated by the Japanese government during the fiscal year 1924-25, providing loan market conditions are favorable according to an announcement by the Department of Finance.

The government must also float conversion issues totalling 119,000,000 yen to take care of old issues, maturing within the new fiscal year, from April 1, 1924, to March 31, 1925. In addition it is hoped to place on the market other issues totalling 79,000,000 yen which were scheduled for 1923-24, but withheld owing to unfavorable market conditions. These bring the total of projected domestic loans for the year to 653,000,000 yen.

Reconstruction work made necessary by the earthquake disaster will absorb nearly all the proceeds of the new issues.

The old issues maturing within the new fiscal year are in eight series, principally 5 per cent treasury bonds. Conversion issues will be floated, for each series as it expires.

Department of Finance officials state that 127,000,000 yen of the loans recently floated in New York and London will be used at home for reconstruction work.

Spectacles Only Clue in Franks Murder—Woman Is Sought

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 24.—Robert Franks, thirteen-year-old son of a Chicago millionaire, was killed by suffocation after being kidnapped for ransom, Coroner Wolf announced today. The spectacles found near the body furnished the most promising clue to the slayer. The lenses are made from prescription for a farsighted person. The deduction indicated that the slayer is nervous, perhaps of neurotic tendency, and rather intellectual and temperamental.

A woman was sought today for the first time in connection with the kidnapping and death of young Franks. This and an automobile license number are all that the police have allowed to become known of the plans to solve the mystery. At the same time, four men, one instructor and another former instructor at the private school which the boy attended have been detained for further questioning. A police guard was thrown around the home of Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy today, after new threats of violence were reported in the hunt for the slayers continued.

KLAN LEADER AND WIFE ARE SHOT

S. Glenn Young of Herrin, Illinois Famine, Narrowly Escape Being Killed.

OKAWVILLE, Ill., May 24.—S. Glenn Young, East St. Louis, Ill., Ku Klux Klan dry rider, and his wife were wounded yesterday afternoon by unidentified automobile gunmen, who tried to assassinate them on the Atlantic-Pacific highway at the Okaw river bottoms, near here, as they were riding toward St. Louis.

Young has been conducting a series of talks on "Klantaugas," in cities in Southern Illinois, and was returning to St. Louis from Harrisburg, where he delivered a talk Thursday night, when he and his wife were attacked.

Young, who for many months was the paid leader of the Klan in Marion, Ill., in spectacular raids in Marion county, was sent to East St. Louis recently to take over the affairs of the East St. Louis Klan and attempt a reorganization. He has been active in raiding activities throughout Southern Illinois for many years, and it is thought the gunmen were among those who have been arrested by Young.

On March 13, 1923, Young was indicted on 55 charges by the grand jury of Herrin, investigating the shooting there of Deputy Sheriff John Layman, and the killing of Constable Cuesar Cagle, on February 8, during a near riot between Klan and anti-Klan forces.

Bakery Employee Is Stabbed In Quarrel

Elmer Young, 16, employee of the Acme Bakery, was slightly injured this morning when Bill Givens, colored boy, stabbed him in the side. The stabbing followed a quarrel between the two boys. Both of them had knives, according to the report, but the negro boy was not hurt.

Young's assailant was taken in custody by officers and placed in jail in the detention ward. The wounded boy received the attention of a physician after the fight. The latter reports that the knife wound was about an inch deep. The patient returned to his work after the treatment.

Five-Year-Old Shoots Woman After Warning

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 24.—"I'm going to shoot you," said five-year-old J. C. Reese Wednesday afternoon as he pointed a small caliber rifle at Miss Lucy Campbell, aged 19.

"Oh, don't shoot me; shoot the puppy dog," Miss Campbell replied playfully. But the words were no sooner out of her mouth than the little fellow pulled the trigger and the bullet struck her in the right cheek, lodging in the jaw.

Miss Campbell was taken to a hospital where it was said she would recover.

WOULD PREVENT LEAVING FARMS

South Carolina Seeks State Control of the Abandonment of Country.

By Associated Press.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 21.—Land settlement as a state controlled project, to offset the boll weevil and the migration of the negro from the cotton fields, has been investigated by a commission appointed by Governor Thomas G. McLeod, of South Carolina, but must wait on legislation by the general assembly next year for an actual beginning, according to former Governor R. I. Manning, chairman of the South Carolina land settlement commission.

The former chief executive, appointed by Governor McLeod to head the commission, said the situation in this state exists in varying degrees throughout the south.

Dr. W. W. Long, director of the extension department of Clemson College, in pointing out the need for a state-wide survey, said reports revealed an "alarming situation" under which farm lands were being deserted and their occupants leaving the state, as many as 9,000 white families leaving the farms in one year. Factors playing a part in the steady reduction in number of farms were given by him as the advent of the boll weevil, which reached the peak of its doom in the cotton crop in South Carolina during the three years in question, and the resulting migration to the north of both white and negro laborers.

The rural situation as affected by agricultural conditions was steadily growing worse, Mr. Long said. It was felt that it would be impossible to put colonization schemes into operation, unless the state led the way.

The land settlement commission first went to California and Wisconsin where the problem was discussed with the commissions of those states. Later a tour included Utah and other states. The policy of California, however, attracted the especial interest of the commissioners.

Say Coal Industry In Serious Condition

HARLAN, May 21.—The most serious condition in the history of the coal industry in this section of the state now confronts the public. Despite the assurances that the market would pick up with the opening of spring, conditions have grown steadily worse, and a number of the larger mines are preparing to shut down.

School Athletics Theme of Talk for the Community Chest

Prof. J. W. Bradner, superintendent of the Middlesboro schools, will make a brief address at the Manning theater to-night on the subject of school athletics, a cause which will receive $1,600 from the Community Chest during the coming year.

The importance of this fund can be scarcely overestimated. By comparing the athletic facilities now with those of a year ago a strong argument in favor of continuing the appropriation is found.

During the past year a fine athletic park has been bought and paid for out of the fund. This gives the school athletes an ideal place for outdoor sports and practice of all kinds. A part of the fund was used to supplement the pay of the athletic coach, the allotment making it possible to hire a first-class instructor.

Though the funds from the Community Chest have been coming in for

CRUSOE'S MUSKET SOLD

The gun bears in rough carving the inscription:

"Alexander Selkirk, Largo, 1701."

ENDORSE U. S. ADHESION TO WORLD COURT

Committee Favors Permanent Court International Justice.

NO HOPE FOR VOTE

Proposals of Harding and Coolidge Are Voted Down—First Time Matter Ever Actually Before Congress.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Adhesion of the United States to the Permanent Court of International Justice was endorsed in a resolution reported today by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The resolution follows closely a composite proposal put forward by Senator Pepper, Republican, of Pennsylvania. The committee's action would bring the world court before the Senate for the first time but there is little hope in any quarter of a vote during the present session. Before taking up the plan eventually reported, the committee voted down the proposal comprising substantially the proposals submitted to Congress by President Harding and Coolidge.

She said she told him her husband might come home and shoot him. He asked her where the pistol was and in the struggle for its possession she said she shot him. The girl's mother testified that she was born in Owensboro, Ky.

Russians Send 27 Officials To Death For Corruption

By Associated Press.

LENINGRAD, Russia, May 21.—The Supreme Court today, after twenty-seven hours' deliberation, condemned to death seventeen former judges, officials, court officials, lawyers and persons connected with the operation of the new economic policy who had been tried on charges of corruption and bribery. The prosecutor, in urging the death sentence, said "The security of the revolution demands that we pave our way to truth with an axe, but in this case we have paved our way not through forests but upon live heads. We must do it mercilessly." The same court next week will try 107 persons on charge of espionage and counter revolution.

PUSHES PLANS FOR COMMUNITY CHEST

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night—Another Big Gathering for Monday Night.

An enthusiastic meeting, in which practically all the team captains of the Community Chest campaign and other interested persons took part was held at the school auditorium last night. The coming drive was discussed and tentative plans made for the work.

W. C. Stair, general chairman of the Community Chest campaign presided at the meeting. He stressed the importance of soliciting every person in Middlesboro and urged the team officers to see that the work is done thoroughly. He predicted that the drive would go over big and that the entire job could be accomplished within a few hours.

Plans for the big parade which will be coincident with the drive were discussed. Supt. J. W. Bradner promises to dismiss school at 9 o'clock in order that the school children might take part. It is thought also that Miss Elizabeth Jackson, superintendent of the Grace Nettleton Home, will bring a number of her girls to take part in the street event.

The Salvation army and perhaps others of the beneficiaries will take part in the parade. A number of attractive banners will be carried and perhaps some floats will be provided. The parade will march around town for some time, giving people in the residential sections an opportunity to see it.

A big meeting of all the officers and members of the soliciting team, the public in general will be held at the school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Monday night. At this time final preparations for the drive will be made. Every one in Middlesboro is invited to be present at this meeting.

HAZARD, May 21.—Self defense was established by two men on trial in the Tetcher Court Thursday for slaying another. Cleveland Ramey was acquitted for the alleged killing of Henry Whitaker, in the coal fields. According to the testimony, the men had been enemies. Murrell, it was declared, went to Ramey's home and calling him outside, opened fire. Ramey then shot and killed Murrell, blowing his head off with a shotgun.

The jury hearing the case of Wilford Collier, Cumberland River, this county, returned a verdict of acquittal, finding Collier shot and killed Lion Miles in self defense.

FOR MORE WORK AMONG NEGROES

Presbyterians Hear Plea for Larger Interest in Colored People.

By Associated Press.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 22.—A plea for a larger interest in work for negroes made today by Rev. T. J. B. Harris, pastor of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Englewood, N. J., in connection with the Presbyterian General Assembly now in session here.

The speaker set forth that, as a result of observing the resolution favoring work among the negroes adopted at the general assembly held in 1895, the Presbyterian church today had 137 day schools with three outstanding colleges, 475 teachers, 18,000 pupils, four synods, 16 presbyteries, 523 communicants, 20,000 children in the Bible schools, 22 Sabbath-school missionaries, 800 ministers, teachers and workers. Money had been contributed, earnest and faithful workers had given their time, toil and lives to the extent that there have come forth from this mass men and women with high moral ideals, trained for Christian leadership.

These leaders had gone forth into the Methodist, Baptist, and Episcopal churches, Dr. Harris declared, wielding a far-reaching influence for the good and welfare of their race. Thus the negro had developed a race consciousness which is sensitive to injustice, wrongs, oppressions and other encroachments upon his civil liberties.

"New work for the negro should be undertaken and fostered in our large centers. New York City, with upward of 200,000 negroes in the Harlem district, has only two negro churches, and there are other large centers where no work is being carried on.

In our school work we need more and better facilities. Our colleges need to be standardized to the A-1 class so that young men and women who go out to be leaders will not be handicapped by insufficient training, as is too often the case.

"The migratory movement of the negro has created new community problems. Five hundred thousand have migrated in the past 12 months looking for a square meal and a man's chance. They must be properly absorbed, otherwise they become a danger. For this work there should be individuals who can understand their sufferings and fears and depressions, and who can help them become helpful assets to their respective communities.

"More and more the leadership of the negro is developing upon capable negro men and women. The welfare of 12 millions of negroes calls for the best leaders the church can provide."

SCANDAL IN U. S. PRINTING OFFICE

Public Printer Tells Convention of Open Graft Broken Up in Government Office.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 21.—A story of a startling condition in the government printing office was related here before the annual convention of the third district typographic federation composed of employing printers by George H. Carter, public printer. He said he broke it up by driving a score of leaders from public service. He said a ring of race track touts and handbook makers operated without restraint through the government printing office. He said that more by workers, men and women alike, than $10,000 a day was placed in bets. One woman, he said, mortgage her home and lost all in an endeavor to get rich quick.

INJUNCTION TO OPEN UP EAST END TO JUDGE

Contractors Don't Oppose This Action By Residents.

IS UP TO THE STATE

Temporary Bridge Necessary to Have Street Opened—Detour Is Bad After Hard Rain.

Efforts will be made Monday to have the East End injunction issued by the circuit clerk approved by Judge J. G. Forrester, according to I. G. Leabow, counsel for the petitioners. The injunction issued by the clerk a few days ago which sought to compel the contractors to open the East End street where repairs are in progress and a bridge is being built has not been complied with, presumably because it was not signed by the circuit judge.

The Humbard Construction company is not opposing the injunction, a representative of the firm stated today. The road builders claim they are even more anxious to have the road open than the public, that it means money to them to get the work finished without delay. The state is really having the work done in the East End and the contractors are not taking any issue in the matter, is seems.

The petitioners for the injunction also seek to compel the erection of a temporary bridge for use of traffic while the concrete bridge is being finished. The contractors claim they are willing to build this and will do so if the state orders it.

The counsel for the prospective engineers stated this morning that he understood that the street would be opened today. The construction company men stated that it was not open and probably would not be until later.

Many conflicting reports are heard about the condition of the detour. Herbert Kidd, superintendent of construction, stated that the improvised road is "not so bad," that he drove over it this morning without difficulty after the rain of last night. Other reports are to the effect that some teamsters have made as much as thirty-five dollars per day pulling cars out of the mud.

MIDDLESBORO AND ITS CHILDREN

If the future of the community depends upon its children, as we have every reason to believe it does, we are then well-satisfied with the progress which Middlesboro is making in the way of adequate care of the youth of the city. We have a long way to go yet, it is true, but we have come a long way in the past two years or so. During this time five new schools have been built here, all furnished with modern equipment. Our excellent school board has obtained the services of a superintendent who ranks in the very foremost rank of educators in this state and who, with the efficient corps of teachers that he has assembled, has raised the city's standard of education immeasurably.

Our Community Chest, now an established institution, provides in a measure for the children of the city through the benevolence of our citizens. The Salvation Army, financed by the Community Chest, cares for the poor children of the city when they need help. The Red Cross looks after their health, in an out of the schools, and has in this way corrected many physical defects and prevented harmful epidemics. The Carnegie Library has children as its most consistent patrons and, because of the city's support, is able to furnish these children with wholesome and constructive books. The Athletic Association also financed, provides for building up for our children better bodies and a spirit of fair play. The Boy and Girl Scout funds make possible the development of wholesome boys and girls. Through our city's charity, too, we spread out to help the Grace Nettleton Home and the Red Bird Settlement School so that the children in these places may have a fair chance.

The Under-privileged Child is provided for, not only in the Community Chest but by the Kiwanis Club. This club has made the statement that every crippled child in Middlesboro shall have a chance to be made whole if it is possible and that every child who wants to may have a chance to stay in school. This indeed is a worthy program for any organization to adopt.

We have now under consideration, too, the matter of a municipal playground, a proposition whereby the city shall care for its children during their vacation time as well as during school time. We are beginning to realize more and more that it is in the spare time that a child finds his way into mischief. By supervised playgrounds and community activities the child will not only be kept busy but he will be instructed in the ways of fair play and self-respect. This is, of course, not a matter for voluntary subscription, but rather must be supported by the city. We do not have this yet, but we believe that the time is not far distant when we shall have such a provision, keeping pace with our other advancement.

As a whole, this program for Middlesboro's children is one of which we should be proud. We have come a long way in two years and we expect the work that is being done for this generation's children to show effects in the grown-ups of next generation.

Nothing makes a man want to go out and chew tobacco as much as seeing a male movie vamp all slicked up and acting real tame.

BOOSTING PARCEL POST RATES

A bill, known as the Paige bill, is pending in Congress, one purpose of which is to increase parcel post rates. It is not a moderate increase which the bill proposes, a jump of a cent or two on existing schedules, but a 200 per cent raise. Other increases are proposed in second and third class postal rates. The bill is designed to get additional revenue to the extent of $110,000,000 annually.

A lot of help a reduction in income tax is going to be if postal rates are jumped in this wholesale and extravagant manner.

If you are in the manufacturing business, and use the mail to send out samples and goods to customers, consider the difference in your expense for postage with a 200 per cent increase.

They say there is some risk of the Paige bill passing at Washington. If there be any risk it is time for those interested—and they are legion—to get busy with their congressmen.

Increased revenue is doubtless needed for the postoffice department. Increases in salary are due the postal clerks. But this bill will gouge the public and defeat its own end. It will result in driving business to the express companies.

Congress voted an appropriation of $500,000 for a thorough investigation of postal costs as a basis on which to readjust rates if necessary. That investigation has been under way for some time. It is expected an exhaustive report will be ready for submission in July or August.

To legislate for an arbitrary upward revision of rates in anticipation of this report is an unintelligent proceeding.

Postmaster New urges that Congress wait until it has the results of the investigation before it. That is sound advice, but the indifference of Congress to departmental opinion makes it important that it should hear from the country. Judging from the manner in which it treats the recommendations of Secretary Mellon, Secretary Hughes, Secretary Hoover and others—not to mention the President—the fact that Postmaster New is against passing the Paige Bill may be sufficient to insure its passage unless there is emphatic protest from the people who will be voting next November.

MARK TWAIN'S WEATHER REPORT

Mark Twain once suggested that newspapers could save a lot of both paper and type-setting if they would use the following "standing matter" proposition.

"Probable northeast to southwest winds, varying to the southeast and westward and eastward and points between; high and low barometer, sweeping round from place to place; probable areas of rain, snow, hail and drought, succeeded or preceded by earthquake with thunder and lightning."

Ken Williams Ousts Heilmann As Leading Batter For 1924

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns, one-time contender in 1923 for the home run honors of the major leagues, today is setting the pace for the batters of the American league, with an average of .117—seven points ahead of Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, ousted from the leadership for the first time this season.

Heilmann, the 1923 batting champion, fell off 41 points compared with his average of a week ago. All the other leaders with the exception of Boone of the Red Sox and Emil Meusel of the Yankees, slumped with Heilmann, Ty Cobb dropped out of the 400 class, going from .402 to .364, while George Sisler, pilot of the Browns tumbled to .338, a loss of 23 points. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Joe Harris, of the Red Sox, although dropping off 12 points, is batting third with an average of .408. Harris has crossed the plate 30 times, the high mark among the scorers.

Inclement weather kept Eddie Collins and Bill Barrett of the White Sox idle, but they remain tied for the home stealing honors with seven each. "Rube" Ruth, also idle on account of the weather smashed out only one homer, but is leading major league circuit clouters with nine.

Other leading batters: Boone, Boston .386; Meusel, New York .381; Cobb, Detroit .364; Dugan, New York .360; Jamieson, Cleveland .356; Sherry, Chicago .352; Summa, Cleveland .344; Judge, Washington .337; Veatch, Boston .337; Higney, Detroit .333; Sisler, St. Louis .333.

National League
The gap between Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals, champion hitter of the National League, and the veteran Zack Wheat of the Dodgers, has been further widened, the St. Louis star having advanced to .441 while Wheat is trailing with .395.

Grisby of the Cubs, playing in Hack Miller's left field position, swept into a batting stride that carried him into the select list with an average of .350, a gain of 48 points within a week.

Max Carey and "Pie" Traynor of the Pirates continued to run a dead heat for the base stealing honors with nine each. While Jacques Fortinier, of the Dodgers is leading the home run hitters with eight.

"Rabbit" Maranville of the Pirates has eclipsed Frankie Frisch of the Giants as the leading scorer. The Rabbit has scored 30 times while Frisch counted 27.

American Association
Batting his way from thirteenth to second place within a week, Neun of St. Paul, leading base stealer on the American Association, today is challenging Bunny Brief of Kansas City for the batting honors. Neun connected with fourteen hits in his last six games, giving him an average of .414, compared with .364 a week ago, while Brief eased back into first place with .434.

Neun with a total of seventeen, has so far outdistanced his rivals in base stealing that he is without dangerous competition. Kirke of Minneapolis is setting the pace in hitting homers, having nailed five, while Brief, Neun and Walker of Minneapolis are trailing with four apiece.

Other leading batters: Allen, Indianapolis .398; Scott, Kansas City .387; Maguire, Toledo .374; Johnson, Milwaukee .361; Grimes, Columbus .356; Betzel, Louisville .352; Walker, Minneapolis .351; Shannon, Louisville .349; Dessen, St. Paul .346; Tyson, Louisville .336.

The Tulsa "Babe Ruth" has bagged ten homers.

Austin of Tulsa and Corrigan of St. Joseph are on even terms in base stealing with seven apiece.

Other leader batters: Austin, Tulsa .407; Leivelt, Tulsa .405; Dunning, Wichita .392; Lamb, Tulsa .382; Berger, Denver .380; Bonowitz, Omaha .378; O'Brien, Denver .364; Gindlard, Denver .362; Wilcox, Omaha .361.

Local Boys and Girls Read Best Quality of Books

That the boys and girls of today are demanding better reading matter than young people did a decade or so ago is evident from the quality of literature they voluntarily select from the Carnegie public library here.

Popular historical works, written in an interesting manner and books usually classed as literature for adults are taking the places of juvenile fiction among the young people. A surprisingly large number of boys and girls under sixteen are reading Mark Twain this year; other books of this class are being borrowed by the younger readers.

Books of Louisa M. Alcott which formed an important part of the reading matter of the girl of yesterday have by no means lost their charm in this age of flappers. They are yet more popular than any other series of girls' fiction.

Among the old reliable books of fiction which are still in demand is Ben Hur. This classic tale of the Christ which has seen hundreds of "best sellers" come and go is still being widely read and is one of the books which rarely remain on the library shelves very long.

DEFENDS VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST

Methodist Evangelist Last Night Vigorously Attacks the Modernists.

The virgin birth of Christ and his divinity was vigorously defended by the Rev. M. T. Chandler, evangelist, at the M. E. Church, South, revival last night. The minister declared that the present move of the modernists to shake the faith of the people in the divinity of Jesus is not new, that there have been men in every age since the time of the Savior who sought to prove him an ordinary man.

"Jesus was really part God and part man, the son of David and the Lord of David," the Rev. Chandler declared, giving numerous examples tending to prove his dual character. "It was the man who went to sleep while the sea was raging but it was God who said 'peace, be still'; it was the man who stood weeping at the tomb of Lazarus but it was God who said, 'Lazarus, come forth'; it was the man who suffered on the cross, died and was buried but it was God who conquered death and rose triumphantly from the tomb."

"What thinkest thou of Christ?" words of Jesus to his enemies is the question confronting all Christian denominations today, the same as nearly 2000 years ago, the minister declared. He stated that the general Methodist conference at Springfield, the Baptists of Atlanta and the Presbyterians at San Antonio have recently gone on record as believing in the virgin birth, the divinity of Christ and the Godhead.

The evangelistic services will come to a close with the service Sunday night which will begin at 7 o'clock on account of the baccalaureate sermon at the school auditorium.

Carriages Replace Auto In Smartest Set In London

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 24.—Tired of luxurious motorcars, many members of London's smart set are returning to the horse carriage for shopping purposes and for driving in the park. Many smart equipages are seen every day in Bond Street, Mayfair and the park with high stepping horses, as in the Victorian era.

A well-known coach owner, who regularly drives four horses in his coach, expressed the opinion that the carriage horse is coming back into favor. Many people are bringing their horses up to town from their country residences he said, and others are hiring carriages and horses in preference to motorcars.

PRESBYTERIANS PENSION MANY

Care for More this Year Than Ever Before—$681,000 Is Distributed.

GRAND RAPIDS, May 24.—The 60th annual report of the Presbyterian Board of Relief and Sustentation was presented today to the Presbyterian General Assembly in session here. Dr. Henry B. Master, general secretary, stated that the past year had been the best financially the board had ever known, with a total of $681,000 distributed in pensions during the year.

Dr. Master held, however, that the pension system was pathetically inadequate, and that the honor of the church was at stake to secure some remedy for the situation. He urged that some radically different plan must be devised and that the church must enable the board to plan for the future.

Dr. Master emphasized the idea that pensions for aged and disabled ministers and other servants of the church were not a matter of charity but of simple justice. He reported that there was a shortage of more than $2,000,000 in the reserve fund of the Sustentation Department.

Dr. Master estimated that at the end of five years more there would be on the Presbyterian pension rolls 500 honor roll men at $700 a year, 500 other ministers at $500 a year, 1,200 widows at $400 a year, besides orphans and commissioned lay missionaries.

In urging reform of the pension system, Dr. Master held that any pension system worthy of the name must be extended to cover all the servants of the church, ministers, missionaries and commissioned lay workers. Moreover, he said, this pension ought to be an adequate one, affording a reasonable measure of comfort and freedom from grinding poverty in old age or disability.

Dr. Master added that the whole matter of the proposed new pension plan would be covered in detail when the special laymen's committee should present its reports.

EWING SCHOOL IS CLOSED THIS WEEK

Successful Term at L. C. L. Ends With Appropriate Exercises—Ten Graduates.

EWING, Va., May 24.—A very successful school term at the Lee County Industrial School came to a close Wednesday evening when the literary address was delivered by Dr. Claud D. Curtis, president of Martha Washington College, Abingdon, Va. The house was filled, many being unable to get seats. The Rev. W. K. McClure of Middlesboro preached the baccalaureate sermon Sunday to a large congregation. Both the sermon and the address were an inspiration to all who heard them.

Commencement exercises continued with the grade program Monday evening, including a playette "Taking Teacher's Place," by pupils of first, second and third grades; a play, "The Kink in Kizziah's Wedding," by pupils of fourth and fifth grades; and a comedietta, "A Case in Suspension," by pupils of sixth and seventh grades. W. P. Allen of the school board also made a short talk to the patrons.

Tuesday evening the Senior Class presented the force "When a Feller Needs a Friend." This made quite a hit, and was attended by a large audience, in spite of the downpour of rain.

In addition to the graduating exercises Wednesday evening, the medals won in the Field Day contests were awarded, as well as medal for the short story to Miss Maude Dillman and for music to Miss Mary Neil Thompson, Miss Maurine Dalton of the high school and Roy Harris of the grades each won a prize of five dollars given by the local D. A. R. for scholarship. Prof. W. A. Wygal, superintendent of Schools for Lee County, was present Wednesday evening and gave a brief talk.

Phil Wynn was valedictorian of the Senior Class. Other members were Verta Robbins, Emma Combs, Maude

Dillman, Angie Fugate, Elizabeth Sloan, Olin Stickley, Cam Wynn, Jr., Paul Fugate and White Dean.

Pleasing musical numbers helped to complete each program. Two of special mention were the solos by Miss

Snyder Dairy Installs New Pasteurizer

Installation of modern pasteurizing machinery and other equipment for making raw milk into a sanitary, whole-some product makes the A. B. Snyder and Son dairy on Cumberland Avenue the only establishment of this kind in thirty-one counties of this state. The new machinery has been set up and will be in operation Tuesday, Mr. Snyder states.

The Blue Line pasteurizer has a 100 gallons capacity tank. The milk in the tank is heated by hot water between the outer and inner walls of the tank. The milk in the inner container is kept in a state of agitation by a revolving propeller. After leaving this vat, the milk trickles over a pipe-coil which is kept cooled to forty degrees, this making it ready for bottling. The milk is not touched by hands in any of the manufacturing operations.

Bottles are thoroughly cleaned by hot water and steam by a special device. In addition to pasteurized milk and cream, butter, cheese and, in fact, all dairy products are manufactured and dispensed there.

By Radio and by Wire

In these pictures interesting contrast is shown in photographs sent by radio and by phone. On the left is a picture of Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, transmitted and received by means of the invention of C. Francis Jenkins, Washington, D. C., who has been meeting with increased success in sending photos in the air. On the right is a picture of President Coolidge transmitted by phone through the American Telegraph & Telephone Co. Some hold that radio transmission is less practical, due to ether disturbances.

Photographs Transmitted by Telegraph From Cleveland to New York, Latest

NEW YORK, May 24.—Transmission of photographs from Cleveland to New York City over long distance telephone lines was accomplished this week in a demonstration by laboratory experts of the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

The method, achieved after several years' work was described by officials of the company as a simple, rapid and accurate picture transmitting system.

The invention will be installed on the company's various long distance lines. It was announced in accordance with the demand which arises for this type of service.

Cleveland was selected as the place for the transmitting station so that pictures taken at the Republican National convention might be transmitted to New York within a few minutes. Actual transmission today showed that photographs could be transmitted to New York and made ready for producing newspaper plates within ten minutes from the time the original photograph was placed on the transmitting machine. Messages in handwriting also were transmitted, the copy received being a facsimile of the original message.

In sending a picture, the original is placed around a cylinder within which there is a photo-electric cell. On another cylinder within which there is a photo-electric cell. On another cylinder in the receiving office an unused film is placed. Both cylinders revolve in synchronization. During the operation a very small but intense beam of light is thrown on the original photograph, passing through the film to the photo-electric cell with an intensity proportionate to the lights and shades of the original picture. By the aid of a new device, a light varying in intensity in exact correspondence with the original beam received by the photo-electric cell is thrown on the film onto which the picture is being transmitted. The receiving cylinder revolves and the ray of light moves gradually from one end of the cylinder to the other end. When the end is reached the film is ready for development.

Officials of the telephone company said the method could not be used on cables, because it is necessary to amplify at various stations the current used in transmitting the photographs.

considerable damage to the car. Mrs. Y. A. Ray and two small children in their store, were cut off by water on both sides and were unable to get out until Chad Britain came to their rescue and pulled them loose the drift that was caught on the house.

Facts Keep Speaking

Through these ads we have said to you often, that the CORNO LINE OF FEEDS was the best that came in this territory. We made that statement after several years of experimenting and after we had handled this line for one year and watched its results. We have never had a customer that has handled this line who has not proven the truthfulness of our contention. Here is another one:

"We work our mules harder than any other mine in this field. It takes a real feed to keep them up. When we first started with your feed, we were skeptical and frankly we did not believe it would do the work. With that unfair chance it has removed all doubts and we must tell you that it keeps our mules in better condition and on less feed than any we have ever fed."

Yes, we will give you the name. CORNO HEN FEEDS, COW FEEDS, HORSE AND MULE FEEDS, AND HOG FEEDS.
